

Joe L. Carrick, DDS, FAACD, DICOI

Dr Carrick has given numerous seminars and lectures nationally and internationally on prosthetic and implant interrelationships, as well as facial esthetics. Dr. Carrick has authored numerous articles on implants and cosmetic dentistry. He also produced the prototypes of what are now the ERA Implant as well as the surgical protocol for the implant. Dr. Carrick was past president of the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry, editor of the Journal of Cosmetic Dentistry. He has been on faculty at the University of Texas Baylor, Minnesota, U. of Pacific and Florida as Adjunct Professor. Presently he is serving as co-director of the five month Masterly Level Prosthetic course at the University of Buffalo and teaching the ERA Implant surgical course at the University of Texas San Antonio.